The Walnut Building, located at 691 Mill St, is one of the most beautifully done buildings in the famed Arts District of Downtown Los Angeles. This retail space, situated in the building, has an open layout, opening its arms to for an array of different tenants.

24/7 security and an attached parking lot are a few of the key points to highlight, as well as an almost full occupancy of the units above. This space is truly a gem and can be created into the space of any tenants dreams. From a Restaurant, to a creative office space, to even a retail store, this space is truly ready to go.
